

ABSTRACT OF THE DISCLOSURE

In a magnetoresistance apparatus including a first functional layer and a second functional layer magnetically connected to the first functional layer, 5 an overlapping ratio of the second functional layer onto the first functional layer is approximately 0 to 10 percent.